NOTICE OF SERVICE

NOW COMES the United States of America, Plaintiff herein, by and through Dena J. King, United States Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, and submits that pursuant to Rule G(4)(b) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, the United States sent notice of the Complaint for Forfeiture in rem (Doc. 1) via Federal Express to those individuals and/or entities who the United States determined reasonably appeared to be potential petitioners asserting interests in the property.

Notice Sent<sup>1</sup>	Party Name	Disposition (Exhibit A)
11/15/2023	Jimmie McMillan	Delivered 11/17/2023
11/15/2023	Helen McMillan	Delivered 11/17/2023

In addition, notice of the forfeiture was posted on an official government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov) for at least 30 consecutive days, beginning on November 21, 2023. (Exhibit B)

This 10th day of January, 2024.

<sup>1</sup> The United States identified an administrative typographical error in the first Notice sent on November 15, 2023 and in an abundance of caution sent a second Notice to potential petitioners after correcting the error.
